Accreditation Statement Harvard Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Statement Harvard Medical School designates this educational activity for a maximum of 20.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s).™ Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Date of Original Release: June 1, 2009

Date Credits Expire: May 31, 2012

CME credit is obtained upon successful completion of an activity post-test, as well as payment of a $30 processing fee.

Additional User Packages Additional User Packages (AUPs) are available so that you and your colleagues can earn AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ from one set of DVDs, MP4s, MP3s or audio CDs at a fraction of the cost of buying the entire program. Each AUP includes a comprehensive syllabus on CD-ROM and a CME credit package (the evaluation or post-test), but no DVDs, MP4s, MP3s or audio CDs. CME credit is obtained upon successful completion of an activity evaluation. A processing fee noted in the Credit Designation statement must accompany the completed evaluation application. AUPs may be purchased now or at any time after your initial order. Shipping and handling for AUPs are waived when ordered at the same time as this program.

Return Policy & Guarantee Our commitment at CMEinfo is to satisfy our customers with the highest-quality products and service. In order to fulfill this mission, we are happy to allow you 15 days from the time you receive the product to determine whether it meets your educational needs. If you are not satisfied, we will accept returns and provide refunds within that period. Each returned program is subject to a $50 restocking fee, which includes inspection of the product. Shipping and handling charges are not refundable. All cancellations must be in writing, and no refunds will be provided after the 15-day window unless the product is proven to be defective. Credit cannot be granted on any educational activity that is returned/cancelled.

We guarantee your program against defects in materials. Return any defective materials, and we will replace them free of charge.

Study in your home or office and eliminate travel costs.
